That is all, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Senator Maresh has some friends under the North balcony, Victor Harms, Harris Holle and Leon Mundt, all from Deshler, and Senator Shirley Marsh's aunt and uncle, very special guests, from Concord, California, Gwen and Rex Kroger. Would all of you people stand and be recognized, please. And in the North balcony, we have 24 4th Graders from the Raymond A. Watson Elementary School which is located in the second ward of the City of Hastings, in Senator Marvel's District. Thank you people for being with us. Senator Barnett, you are representing who?

SENATOR BARNETT: You, if you'd like.

PRESIDENT: Stand and be recognized, Senator.

SENATOR BARNETT: I wanted to say, I wanted to tell the body that on page 921 in the Journal, the Article 6 amendments are published in there so that if they want to take a look at them tonight. That will be for Article 6 tomorrow and they are on page 921 of the Journal.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. We go to Select File. Senator Murphy. We are going to get to LB 77, Senator Murphy.

CLERK: LB 77 is a bill advanced to Select File. There were no E & R amendments. There was a motion offered by Senator Murphy to indefinitely postpone the bill. The motion has been laid over.

PRESIDENT: The Legislature will please be in order. Could we have more order on the floor. Senator Murphy.

SENATOR MURPHY: Gentlemen, the other day I passed out some information that I think is extremely relevant and I hope you still have it. If you do not, I will make it available to you again. If you will simply hold up your hand and indicate that you do not have that literature, the page will deliver it to you but it is essential that you follow it through. I would like to begin by stating a question that should be in the minds of some of you. What am I, a banker,
